

The „Brummel“ dashes on to a third run

The second production run of the eye-catching Farewell-Transall of Germany's Transport Wing 63 is already completely pre-ordered before distribution. An increase of the quantity was not possible at such short notice.

Due to the overwhelming demand, we will shortly start a third (unchanged) production of the final Luftwaffe Transall. These models are schedule to be available in June.